Gabriele Genovese

Curriculum Vitae

✱ 20 February 2001
✉ gabrigeno@gmail.com
🌐 gabrigeno.cappuccino.ovh
⌨ gabrielegenovese

Education

2024–2025 Master in Ubiquitous Networking, Université Côte d'Azur, Nice, France
Part of the Erasmus+ program.

2023–2025 Master in Computer Science, University of Bologna, Italy
Curriculum in Software Techniques.

2020–2023 Bachelor in Computer Science, University of Bologna, Italy
Final grade: 105/110. Thesis title: "ChorEr: a static analyzer to generate Choreography Automata from Erlang source code" (only in Italian), supervised by Prof. Ivan Lanese.

Working Experience

2024-2025 Intern, I3S Laboratory, Sophia-Antipolis, France
Research on the "Implementability of Global Types", supervised by Prof. Cinzia Di Giusto.

2023-2024 Teaching tutor, University of Bologna, Italy
Assistant tutor of Bachelor in Computer Science's Operating System course.

Languages

Italian	Native speaker
English	C1	IELTS Score: 7
French	A1	Université Côte d'Azur

Technical skills

Practical with several programming languages (C, Python, JavaScript, Erlang, Elixir, Go). Daily use of Linux and Git. Good coordination in a team project (Github). Manager of a self-hosted server (Docker, Proxmox, Ansible, CI/CD).

Other experience

Dec. 2024 Participation in the LauzHack hackaton in Lausanne, Switzerland

Sept. 2024 Participation in the Lipari Summer School on Abstract Interpretation

2020–2021 CyberChallange, Participation of two editions of a cybersecurity training program organised by the Italian Cybersecurity National Lab, after passing a selection (10% passing rate).

2015–2019 Summer English Camps, Four two-weeks study holidays in different cities in England.

Personal interests

Volunteering, music, movies/series, videogames, books, guitar, traveling.